Articulation Agreement Between
A.T. Still University, College of Graduate Health Studies and XXXXXXXXXXXX

This Articulation Agreement made as of January 1, 2015, (hereinafter referred to as “Agreement”) by and between the College of Graduate Health Studies, A.T. Still University (hereinafter referred to as “CGHS”), and the XXXXXXXX (hereinafter referred to as “XXX”), is intended to capitalize on the synergies that exist between a regionally accredited institution and a premier health care system by providing students who have completed the required degree and are employed by XXXXX the opportunity to continue their education with a post-graduate degree from CGHS.

XXX employees who apply, and are accepted into a master’s or doctorate program at CGHS, will be awarded a 20% discount of tuition costs. This does not apply to courses that a student is required to repeat. Students are responsible for any other costs (e.g. application fee, books, computer, technology fees, residency, etc.) that may be associated with the program/courses.

CGHS courses will be offered electronically via distance delivery (Internet). Students understand that there are certain requirements related to computer access and competency associated with distance delivery. Students are required to submit a completed application for admission, course registration information documents, and pay tuition and fees to CGHS.

Admission
Students who meet the admission requirements of the CGHS graduate program will be granted admission to the Master of Public Health, Master of Health Administration, Master of Science in Kinesiology, Master of Science in School Health Education, Doctor of Health Administration, Doctor of Health Sciences, or the Doctor of Health Education programs. Under this Agreement, applicants are not required to complete the GMAT, GRE, or other graduate examinations. Once enrolled, accepted, and registered for courses, each XXXX employee will be governed by the administrative procedures and policies of CGHS.

Completion of Requirements
The Master of Public Health, Master of Health Administration, Master of Science in Kinesiology, Master of Science in School Health Education, Doctor of Health Administration, Doctor of Health Sciences, or the Doctor of Health Education degrees will be conferred upon completion of all academic requirements, payment in full of all tuition and fees, and the satisfactory completion of all other graduation requirements outlined in the CGHS catalog.
